SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

Charles Clarke says:

"I would appeal to any member of the NUT to vote for children and against industrial action."

Doug McAvoy says:

"I would appeal to any member of the NUT to vote for children and for a boycott of Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2 SATs."

In Your Hands

- You can regain the freedom to use your professional judgement.
  - You can be free to respond to the individual needs of your pupils.
  - You can be free to teach in the way which is most supportive of your pupils.
- But first you must vote 'YES' in the ballot.

General Secretary, Doug McAvoy, said:

"SATs constrain your freedom to use your professional judgement and thereby make your teaching less effective".
